Joining The Chorus:

- This book is but one of Solomon's 1005 songs 1 Kings 4:32, but it is "The song of songs" Ecclesiastes 1:1, or the most expressive one of all. This is also like Jesus is "king of kings" 1 Timothy 6:15 and Heaven is the "holy of holies" Hebrews 9:8,12,24-25, meaning there is none else comparable to them. Interestingly, notice how many "modern" songs deal with this same subject matter, but sadly, precious few with this Godly reverence.
- S of S details the beauties of sexual intimacy between lovers which should only be shared in a God-sanctioned marriage Cf Genesis 2:18-25; Matthew 19:1-6; Hebrews 13:4. No one should start this process unless it can be honorably completed Cf Song of Solomon 2:7; 3:5; 8:4.
- Song of Solomon plus 1 Corinthians 7:1-9, make a good "marriage manual." They acknowledge God's understanding of the "male and female" He created.
- Because of his experiences, 1 Kings 11:3, and God-given wisdom to interpret, 1 Kings 3:12, marriage partners should be pleased to have this book.
- This book shows how rich a married man's love is, and what "treasure" a woman gives for love. "My beloved is mine, and I am his" Ecclesiastes 2:16. Women and men are truly "liberated" by marriage.
