Looking for the Messiah

Daniel the Prophet prophesied Jerusalem would be rebuilt and last "Until Messiah the Prince" (Daniel 9:25). Andrew told Peter, his brother,

'We have found the Messiah' (which is translated, the Christ). And he brought him to Jesus (John 1:41-42).

From prison, John the Baptist asked

'Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?' Jesus answered and said to them, 'Go and tell John the things which you hear and see' (Matthew 11:3-4).

Proof that "Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God" (John 20:31) is found in fulfilled prophecy and the Gospel records of Matthew, Mark, Luke, & John. Everyone who continues to look for "The Messiah" must deny:

- 1) The Gospel is true;
- 2) The Apostles knew; and
- 3) That Jesus has saved anyone!

[Jesus said,] "He who believes and is baptized will be saved."
(Mark 16:16)

Missing Father's Day

"Father's Day" began with memorial service held in 1908 for a large group of men, many of them fathers, who were killed in a mining accident in Monongah, West Virginia, in December 1907. According to the website timeanddate.com, Father's Day is an occasion to mark and celebrate the contribution that your own father has made to your life.

Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? (Hebrews 12:9).

One of the major problems in our society are all the children who don't know their "human father" and have not learned to respect someone who loves them and cares about their behavior. Respect and obedience are learned from a father—unless he's not there!

Irrevocable Law

In ancient Persia, which is modern Iran,

Whatever [was] is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring no one can revoke (Esther 8:8).

Laws are not made to be broken, but man-made law can surely be man-unmade law! God does not change (Malachi 3:6), therefore only God can change God's Law. Jesus Christ is our high priest

... According to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law (Hebrews 7:11-12).

God removed Moses' Law, including the Ten Commandments, if Jesus is our priest. The problem comes when people think that man's law cannot be changed, and God's Law can!

There are many plans in a man's heart, Nevertheless the LORD'S counsel - that will stand (Proverbs 19:21).

Rejecting The Gospel

After hearing Jesus teach, many in the crowd said,

Truly this is the Prophet.' Others said, 'This is the Christ.' But some said, 'Will the Christ come out of Galilee? Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?' So there was a division among the people because of Him (John 7:41-43).

The Scripture had plainly said the Ruler in Israel would come from Bethlehem (Micah 5:2). Those whose faith did not include this plain Scripture became divided from the others who did. After His resurrection, Jesus said the Gospel for the world included,

"He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16).

Not accepting His Word has divided the "faith only" from the faith plus baptism.

Blood-Dedicated Book

After giving Israel the Law, Moses

... Took the blood of calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people...Then likewise he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry (Hebrews 9:19-21).

Under Moses' Law, all priests, worshipers, and tabernacle with its vessels, were dedicated with animal blood. Since Moses' Law was consecrated with animal blood, God would only accept worship He had commanded in that book. Today, Jesus Christ,

... With His own blood [He] entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption (Hebrews 10:12).

He takes away the first that He may establish the second (Hebrews 10:9).

All Christians, and worship actions, must come from the blood-dedicated New Testament. Nothing is "Gospel" unless it comes from the New Testament!
